

Contents

Urban-Environmental History as a Field of Research Sebastian Haumann, Martin Knoll and Detlev Mares	9
Technosphere Chris Otter	21
Socio-Natural Sites Verena Winiwarter and Martin Schmid	33
Materiality and Practice Theory Sebastian Haumann	51
Path-Dependency and Trajectories Christoph Bernhardt	65
Risk and Resilience Dominik Collet	79
Sustainability Ansgar Schanbacher	95
Urban Metabolism Sabine Barles	109
Material Flows and Circular Thinking Heike Weber	125
Urban Infrastructure and the Cultural Turn Martin V. Melosi	145
Cities and Rivers Uwe Lübken	155

Urban Energy Consumption, Mobility and Environmental Legacies
Christian Zumbärgel	167
Animals in Urban-Environmental History
Dorothee Brantz	191
Mobilities, Migration and Demography
Martin Knoll and Reinhold Reith	203
Heritage, Renewal and the Construction of Identity in Urban History
Michael Toyka-Seid	221
Urban Heritage and Urban Development
Rebecca Madgin	235
Village—Small Town—Metropolis
Clemens Zimmermann	253
European Periphery
Rainer Liedtke	265
Urban-Environmental Perspectives in History Teaching
Noyan Dinçkal and Detlev Mares	275
Authors	287
Acknowledgements	291