A first thanks goes to my Supervisors, Prof. Dr. Berger and Prof. Dr. Willimann, without whom this work wouldn't have seen the light, and whose precious advice guided me towards this achievement. A special thanks goes to Prof. Dr. Szász, whose friendship and whose insightful observations widened my knowledge of Liszt's works. My gratitude to Prof. Dr. Dalmonte and Dr. Storino, who very kindly opened me the doors of the library of the Fondazione Istituto Liszt, where my research begun.

A special thanks goes to my parents, my sister, and my brother, who supported me during this not always pleasant years. Last but not least, more than a simple thanks to Alix, whose everyday support encouraged me to bring this adventure to an end, and who always comforted me during the anguish moments.
