

Contents

Acknowledgments	9
------------------------------	---

Introduction

Dalya Yafa Markovich, Christiane Dätsch	11
--	----

I. Theoretical approach

The concept of heritage – A national perspective

Dalya Yafa Markovich	29
-----------------------------------	----

Common, shared, contradictory heritage?

A concept and its dimensions

Christiane Dätsch	45
--------------------------------	----

II. Nationality and the construction of cultural heritage

The Dawn Multicultural Theater: Sharing heritage through documentary theater

Sigal Peres	69
--------------------------	----

From the Mellah in Marrakesh to Israel and back

Gil Kenan	85
------------------------	----

War memorials as a non-monologic heritage site

Sapir Bar El	109
---------------------------	-----

Arab-Hebrew bread: The story of the Hubeza and the split local heritage

Michal Levit	123
---------------------------	-----

III. Multinational divisions and the construction of cultural heritage

Liselotte Grschebina.

A woman with a camera wandering between two heritages
Orly Zimmerman 153

“What shall I cook?”

Erna Meyer’s WIZO-Cookbook in the field of tension between Nation building and shared cultural heritage
Ann-Kathrin Müller 169

Modernist interior design as a shared heritage?

The Frankfurt kitchen in Tel Aviv
Elfi Carle 189

Colonial monuments and the treatment of history

The example of the toppled Colston monument in Bristol
Jana Weyer 207

The Story of a monument, Land Day in Sakhnin, 1976–1978

Tal Ben Zvi 225

Musical (world) heritage?

The West-Eastern Divan Orchestra
Kai Erdlenbruch, Kinneret Suissa 247

IV. The postnational concept and the construction of shared heritage

Encoding the spatial DNA of Tel Aviv’s White City

Sharon Golan 267

German remembrance? Jewish museums in Germany

The example of the Jewish Museum Göppingen
Sarai Hannah-Marie Schulz 283

Shared memories, shared heritage?

Museal concepts of (im-)migration in Germany

Christiane Dätsch 299

Own or foreign heritage? Young Muslims in Auschwitz (2012–2021)

Sophia Isabel Baur 317

The use of digital space for equal shared cultural heritage for Jews and Arabs in Israel

Boaz Lev Tov, Kussai Haj-Yehia 337

Shared heritage on the Hartmannswillerkopf

Gerd Krumeich 355

Biographies of the contributors 373

