1.	INTRODUCTION	 9
1.1	Field of study	 9
1.2	Research questions, approach, and contribution	 15
1.3	Between scholarship and performance practice	 21
2.	THEORETICAL EMBEDMENT	 23
2.1	Frame analysis	 23
2.2	Practice theory	 34
2.3	The concept of knowledge	 41
2.4	Artistic research	 54
3.	METHODOLOGICAL APPROACH	 67
3.1	Case-study-driven praxeological frame analysis	 67
3.2	Complementary video and audio analysis	 69
3.3	Four case studies	 72
4.	THE CONCEPT OF LECTURE PERFORMANCES	 75
4.1	Between lecture and performance	 75
4.2	Current state of research	 76
4.3	As an artistic research practice	 80
4.4	Embedded within the performative turn	 83
5.	THE LECTURE FRAME AND ITS FRAMINGS	 87
6.	ACADEMIC LECTURE: “EXPERIMENTAL PHYSICS 1”	 91
6.1	Creating a context and framing the strip	 91
6.2	Scientific demonstration	 94

6.3	Mathematical validation 101
6.4	Illustration by use of video documentation 105
6.5	Combinatorial clarity 109
7.	ARTISTIC LECTURE: “LECTURE ON NOTHING” 113
7.1	Creating a context and framing the strip 113
7.2	Referencing and transcribing 115
7.3	Ambiguous clarity between reference and transcription 128
8.	THE PERFORMANCE FRAME AND ITS FRAMINGS 131
8.1	The concept of performance 131

8.6	The transformative power of performance 144
9.	ARTISTIC PERFORMANCE: “DANCE FOR NOTHING” 149
9.1	Creating a context and framing the strip 149
9.2	Referencing 151
9.3	Transcribing 155
9.4	Ambiguous clarity between reference and transcription 162
10.	ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE: “MAKING RESEARCH EXPERIENTIAL – FASCINATING PHENOMENA OBSERVED THROUGH HIGH-SPEED CAMERAS” 165
10.1	Creating a context and framing the strip 165
10.2	Scientific demonstration 168
10.3	Illustration by use of video documentation 173
10.4	Video-based clarity 177

11. OVERRIDING KNOWLEDGE PRACTICES | 181

- 11.1 Voicing | 182
- 11.2 Transcription | 184
- 11.3 Clarity-based alignment | 187

12. ON THE THRESHOLD OF KNOWING | 193

- 12.1 Re-conceptualizing knowledge from a praxeological and frame analytical perspective | 194
- 12.2 The impact of lecture performances on the concept of knowledge | 196
- 12.3 Between and beyond art and academia | 203
- 12.4 Outlook | 205

13. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS | 209

14. APPENDIX | 211

- 14.1 Books and journals | 211
- 14.2 Internet sources | 221
- 14.3 Interviews | 221
- 14.4 Performances and performance scripts | 222
- 14.5 Table of figures | 222
- 14.6 Visuals | 223
