Mixed Reality and Games

Theoretical and Practical Approaches in Game Studies and Education

[transcript]

This book is dedicated to all the gaming enthusiasts, everyone involved in the organisation of the conference and its pre-events as well as the contributors and the audience for making possible fruitful discussions throughout the conference and in the written contributions. Without the concerted efforts of everyone involved, the FROG conference 2019 and its pre-events would not have been possible.

We would like to thank the whole editorial team for all their time, energy, and meticulousness put into editing and proofreading this book.

This book is a product of people involved with the Ministry of Labour, Family and Youth, Klagenfurt University, and the KPH Vienna/Krems.

We kindly thank the Ministry of Labour, Family and Youth and the University Foundation of the Archdiocese Vienna for co-funding this work.
