

Table of Contents

Preface | 5

PART 1 INTRODUCTION

Prologue | 14
The Second-Person Enigma | 15
Theory | 21
Person | 33
Pronoun | 38
The Rhetoric of the Second Person | 55

PART 2 CLOSE READING

2.1 Christa Wolf's Kindheitsmuster

Learning to Say "I" | 83
The Main Narrative Components | 85
Narrative Levels: Nelly Jordan | 93
Narrative Levels: The Narrator | 101
Other Narrative Levels | 108
Conclusion | 113

2.2 Michel Butor's La Modification

Addressing the Unknown | 121

The Novel | 123

Léon's Adventure | 126

The Adventure of Writing | 137

The Narrative Perspective | 140

Conclusion | 147

2.3 George Perec's Un homme qui dort

A Jigsaw Puzzle of Literary Pieces | 153

The Novel | 154

The Script of the Experiment | 159

The Script of Intertextuality | 169

The Narrative Perspective | 178

Conclusion | 182

2.4 Ilse Aichinger's Spiegelgeschichte

At the End the Beginning | 187

The Question Reversed | 187

The Two Plots | 190

The Two Narrators | 205

The Theme of Reversal and Transformation | 209

Conclusion | 218

PART 3 ASSESSMENT

Overview | 224

Methodology | 226

Observations Regarding the First Part | 229

Observations Regarding the Second Part | 234

Impact and Continuity | 244

Limitations of This Study | 245

List of Works Cited | 249