

Content

INTRODUCTION

Forms and Functions of Political Humor in Arab Societies: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives

Sabine Damir-Geilsdorf & Stephan Milich | 9

PART I: MAGHREB

Beyond Tanfis: Performativity and Quotidian Humor in Revolutionary Tunisia

Nathanael Mannone | 53

Humor, Mockery and Defamation in Western Sahara: How do Sahrawi Artists use New Media to Perform Political Criticism?

Sébastien Boulay & Mohamed Dahmi | 79

PART II: EGYPT, SUDAN

“We started to Celebrate Being Egyptian”: Humor in the Work of Younger Egyptian Artists

Fabian Heerbaart | 103

From Equanimity to Agony: Portraits of Soldiers and Police Officers in Two Artwork Series of Egyptian Visual Artist Nermine Hammam

Stephan Milich | 131

A Festival of Resistance: Poetic Documents of the Revolution

Liza Franke | 153

Towards an Understanding of the Role of Political Satire in Sudan

Larissa-Diana Fuhrmann | 171

PART III: SYRIA, PALESTINE, KUWAIT, LEBANON

“Candies from Eastern Ghouta”: Dark Humor in Visualizing the Syrian Conflict

Sabine Damir-Geilsdorf | 191

If a Duck is Drawn in the Desert, Does Anybody See It? Humor, Art and Infrastructures of Palestinian Statehood

Chrisoula Lionis | 223

Dealing with Politics in Palestine: The Zan al-'An Comics Project in Ramallah

Anna Gabai | 243

From Kuwait's Margins to Tolaytila's Mainstream: Sheno Ya3ni Challenging Social Positioning through Dystopian Satire

Fatema Hubail | 259

A Critique of Religious Sectarianism through Satire: A Case Study of Lebanese Rap

Fernanda Fischione | 297

Authors | 327