

Contents

Introduction

Hope and Uncertainty in Health and Medicine

Bernhard Hadolt and Andrea Stöckl7

Part I: Pragmatics of Hope and Uncertainty

1 Embracing Uncertainty

Sjaak van der Geest 25

2 Hope, Trust, Medical Action, and Care

The Moral Challenges of Practising Medicine Today

Sylvie Fortin and Sabrina Lessard 39

Part II: The Techno-Sphere

3 Self-Tracking Practices of “Doing Health”

Mobilizations of Data and Technological Inscriptions of (Un)Certainty

Anna Heitger 61

4 Precarious Lives, Uncertainty and the Politics of Hope

Engaging With Novel Therapies for Blood Disorders in India

Sangeeta Chattoo 79

5 Between Uncertainty and Routinization

Accounting for Non-Invasive Prenatal Genetic Testing in Germany

Stefan Reinsch 97

6 “Being a Little Bit Pregnant”
Temporality and the Pragmatics of Uncertainty and Hope in In-Vitro Fertilization
Bernhard Hadolt	117

Part III: Health Management

7 Solo Living and Cancer in Denmark
Understanding Care Politics as the Architect of Human Vulnerabilities
Rikke Sand Andersen	137
8 The Uncertain Future of Antibiotics
Navigating Bacterial Presence in Hospitals amidst Antimicrobial Resistance
Antonia Modelhart	155
9 Transfigurations of Lived Iatrogenic Risks in Switzerland
Rachel Démalis, Thierry Buclin, and Rose-Anna Foley	175
10 “Skyped, Zoomed and WhatsApped”
Practicing Psychotherapy in Pandemic Times
Andrea Stöckl	197

Part IV: Individual and Socially Distributed Emotions

11 Affective Processes and the Diagnosing of Chronic Fatigue
Mette Bech Risør and Nina Nissen	213
12 Fighting for Recovery
The Certain Uncertainty of Living with Locked-in Syndrome
Lina Masana	231
13 Figurations of Feasting on Fermented Food in Four Remote Regions of Switzerland
With Hope, for Health, at Home
Elisabeth Hsu	251

Appendix

Contributors	273
---------------------------	-----