

Contents

Acknowledgments	7
------------------------------	---

1 Introduction

Anita Jóri & Guillaume Robin	9
---	---

I. Scenes and Communities

2 Connecting Detroit and Berlin through techno music

Nightlife and nighttime economy beyond their representations Frédéric Trottier-Pistien	25
--	----

3 Between communities and identities

Mapping out hedonistic and leisure-lifestyle behaviours in the techno subcultures of Berlin Sophia Abidi	47
---	----

4 From Berghain to Balenciaga

Aesthetic Code-Switching between Parisian High Fashion and Berlin Underground Techno Diana Weis	63
--	----

II. Diversity and Inclusion

5 The fluidification of resistance

Queer realities and narratives in Berlin club and rave culture and a transformative practice of the other xan egger, neo seefried & Mascha Naumann	85
--	----

6 New practices, new knowledge
The queer techno scenes of Paris. Contribution to a new epistemology
Ines Liotard 111

7 “Holding the frame”
Awareness as care work and community practice in Berlin club culture
Diana Raiselis 125

III. Perspectives: Social and Ecological Challenges for a Sustainable Club Culture

8 Nocturnal landscapes
A multidisciplinary challenge in light of ecological and societal transitions
Edna Hernández González 149

9 A survey on the resilience modes and reconstitution of nocturnal festivities in times of pandemic in the Berlin migrant techno community
Guillaume Robin 163

10 Sleepless in Kyiv
Max Eulitz 187

11 Interview with Katharina Wolf, Project Coordinator at Clubtopia conducted by Guillaume Robin, 29.08.2023 193

Appendix

Authors 203