

Contents

Acknowledgments 7

1 Introduction
Anita Jóri & Guillaume Robin 9

I. Scenes and Communities

2 Connecting Detroit and Berlin through techno music
Nightlife and nighttime economy beyond their representations
Frédéric Trottier-Pistien 25

3 Between communities and identities
Mapping out hedonistic and leisure-lifestyle behaviours in the techno subcultures of Berlin
Sophia Abidi 47

4 From Berghain to Balenciaga
Aesthetic Code-Switching between Parisian High Fashion and Berlin Underground Techno
Diana Weis 63

II. Diversity and Inclusion

5 The fluidification of resistance
Queer realities and narratives in Berlin club and rave culture and a transformative practice of the other xan egger, neo seefried & Mascha Naumann 85

6 New practices, new knowledge
The queer techno scenes of Paris. Contribution to a new epistemology
Ines Liotard	111

7 “Holding the frame”
Awareness as care work and community practice in Berlin club culture
Diana Raiselis	125

III. Perspectives: Social and Ecological Challenges for a Sustainable Club Culture

8 Nocturnal landscapes
A multidisciplinary challenge in light of ecological and societal transitions
Edna Hernández González	149

9 A survey on the resilience modes and reconstitution of nocturnal festivities in times of pandemic in the Berlin migrant techno community
Guillaume Robin	163

10 Sleepless in Kyiv
Max Eulitz	187

11 Interview with Katharina Wolf, Project Coordinator at Clubtopia
conducted by Guillaume Robin, 29.08.2023	193

Appendix

Authors	203
----------------------	-----