

Contents

Acknowledgements 7

I) Introduction

Contesting Resilience

Negotiating Shared Urban Futures

Dorothee Brantz and Avi Sharma 11

II) Ecologies of Resilience

A Historical Perspective on Resilient Urbanism

The 'Sociobiology of Cities' and 'Ecosystem Urbs' in Belgium, 1900-1980

Koenraad Danneels, Bruno Notteboom and Greet De Block 35

North of the Arctic Circle

Ralph Erskine's Mid-20th Century Urban Planning and Design Projects in Kiruna and Svappavaara

Ann Maudsley 57

Growing Resilient Cities

Urban Community Gardens and Disaster Recovery after the 2010/11 Canterbury/Christchurch Earthquakes

Andreas Wesener 77

Before 'Resilience'

Surviving in Postwar Berlin, 1945-1950

Avi Sharma 101

III) Infrastructures of Resilience

No Easy Solutions

Global Cities, Natural Disasters, Development, and the Intellectual History of Resilience Thinking, 1960s to 1990s

Sönke Kunkel 129

Building Resilience through Commercial Relations

The Formalization of Carwash Sites in Medellín

Marcela López 147

Enhancing Urban Resilience After the 1995 Kobe Earthquake

Parks and Open Spaces as a Multi-Functional Resource

Florian Hendrik Liedtke 167

Transportation as a Resilience Enhancing Tool

Urban Dualism and the Latin American City

Diego Silva Ardila 181

IV) Epilogue

Urban Resilience Has a History – And a Future

Timothy Moss 209

Author Bios 217