

Content

Acknowledgements | 9

Preface | 11

1 Introduction | 15

What is Urban Regeneration? | 18

Contemporary Urban Planning Paradigms | 21

Resistance to Urban Regeneration | 25

Ways of Seeing Urban Regeneration | 29

Case Studies | 33

Aims and Structure of the Book | 44

2 Urban Development Policy | 47

London & Berlin as Political Spaces | 47

London & Berlin as Economic Spaces | 50

The Challenges of Globalisation & Practices of Neoliberalism | 55

The Evolution of British & German Urban Policy | 58

A European Focus on Social Exclusion | 64

3 The Game of Urban Regeneration | 67

Bourdieu's Conceptual Framework | 68

The Playing Field of Urban Regeneration | 74

Players & Strategies | 79

4 'Culture' in Urban Regeneration | 91

Culture in Politics & Theory | 91

How Planners Conceive & Make Culture | 97

How Theory Defines Culture | 99

History & Culture: Competing Narratives | 102

Materialising Culture | 131

5 'Community' in Urban Regeneration | 145

Community in Politics & Theory | 145

Diy Urbanism as 'Dynamic Community' | 155

Protest Networks: Re-Inventing the Language of Community? | 185

6 Conclusion | 205

The Instruments of Battle | 206

Concluding Remarks | 213

References | 215