

Author index

Nina Apin, M. A., is a journalist and author based in Berlin. She works as an editor for the daily national newspaper taz, die tageszeitung. Since 2010, she has been covering different aspects of CSA. In 2020, she published her book “Der ganz normale Missbrauch” (Our daily abuse), a summary of what German society has achieved in fighting CSA since 2010. Contact: apin@taz.de

Fatma Çelik, Prof. Dr., Professorship for Developmental Psychology at University of Applied Sciences in Düsseldorf and Psychotherapist (Systemic Therapy), research interests: prevention and intervention strategies for victims of CSA, emotional vulnerability over the life-span, socio-emotional development, health development. Contact: fatma.celik@hs-duesseldorf.de

Nicola Döring, Prof. Dr., is head of the research group Media Psychology and Media Design at the Institute of Media and Communication Science at Ilmenau University of Technology, Ilmenau, Thuringia, Germany. Her research interests include psychological and social dimensions and impacts of old and new media, sex and gender research, as well as media content analysis and other social scientific methods. Contact: nicola.doering@tu-ilmenau.de

Simone Eelmaa, M. A., is a lawyer working in the private sector and a doctoral student at the Institute of Social Studies, University of Tartu, Estonia. Her research interests are human trafficking, sex crimes, and child sexual abuse. She also focuses on online facets of these crimes. Contact: simone.eelmaa@ut.ee

Adrian Etzel, M. A., is a research assistant at the Social Science Research Institute on Gender Issues; Protestant University of Applied Sciences Freiburg. He is working in projects on Child Sexual Abuse. Contact: adrian.etzel@eh-freiburg.de

Jörg M. Fegert, Prof. Dr., is Medical Director of the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry/Psychotherapy at the University Hospital Ulm. His work focuses on child maltreatment, the relationship between youth welfare services and youth psychiatry as well as other social law and forensic issues. Contact: joerg.fegert@uniklinik-ulm.de

Jelena Gerke, M. Sc., is a research assistant at the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry/Psychotherapy at the University Hospital Ulm. Her main areas of research include child sexual abuse, specifically child sexual abuse by mothers. Contact: jelena.gerke@uniklinik-ulm.de

Cornelia Helfferich, Prof. Dr., was a former Professor of Sociology at the Protestant University of Applied Sciences, Freiburg and head of the Social Science Research Institute on Gender Issues; Protestant University of Applied Sciences Freiburg. Main topics of research were genderbased violence and reproductive health. Prof. Helfferich passed away on 23 November 2021.

- Maximilian von Heyden, M.Sc. is Director of Health Communication and Public Relations at the Institute of Sexology and Sexual Medicine at the Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin. He studied Social Work at the Mannheim University of Applied Sciences and Public Health at the Berlin School of Public Health in Berlin. Contact: maximilian.von-heyden@charite.de
- Ulrike Hoffmann, Dr., is Head of Working Group “Knowledge transfer, dissemination, elearning” at the department for Child and Adolescent Psychiatry/Psychotherapy at the University Hospital Ulm. Her main areas of research include child sexual abuse, especially the development of safeguarding procedures in institutions. Contact: ulrike.hoffmann@uniklinik-ulm.de
- Edith Huber, Dr., Senior Researcher and Head of Research Office, Danube University Krems: She completed her doctorate at the Faculty of Social Sciences at the University of Vienna. Her research focuses on cybercrime and social aspects in the misbehavior in Internet in safety and security. Contact: edith.huber@donauuni.ac.at
- Josephine Ischebeck, M. Sc., works as a psychotherapist in Berlin. She studied psychology in Erlangen and Berlin with a focus on clinical and forensic psychology. Her research interests include CSA prevention, the media's handling of sensitive issues and resocialisation processes in forensic contexts. Contact: praxis@psychotherapie-ischebeck.de
- Beyza Karabaş, B. A., research assistant at Fliedner University of Applied Sciences Düsseldorf, research interests: CSA, type of information access in students on tabooed topics.
- Barbara Kavemann, Prof Dr., is a sociologist, senior researcher, Social Science Research Institute on Gender Issues / FIVE e.V. (SoFFI F.). She is a member of the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse and has been researching the topic of child sexual abuse for many years. <https://barbara-kavemann.de/> Contact: barbara.kavemann@eh-freiburg.de
- Kathrin Lipke, B. Sc. Med. Dok., is a research assistant in the research group of Miriam Rassenhofer at the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry/Psychotherapy at the University Hospital Ulm. Her primary research focus lies on child sexual abuse. Contact: kathrin.lipke@uniklinik-ulm.de
- Maria Murumaa-Mengel, PhD, is an associate professor of media studies (Institute of Social Studies, University of Tartu). She focuses mainly on young people's use (and non-use) of social media, digital literacies, the risks and opportunities of online communication. Contact: maria.murumaa@ut.ee
- Bianca Nagel, M. A., is a research assistant at the Social Sciences Research Institute on Gender Issues Freiburg / FIVE e.V. in Berlin. She works in different research projects on sexual violence in childhood and adolescence and is currently writing her PhD thesis. Contact: bianca.nagel@eh-freiburg.de
- Mikkel Rask Pedersen, Cand.scient.anth., Ph.D.-student, Institute for Communication and Culture, Aarhus University // Save the Children, Denmark. Currently working to explore alternative modes of help-seeking for people sexually attracted to minors with a particular focus to online peer-support forums. Contact: mira@cc.au.dk

- Stjepka Popović, PhD, is an Assistant Professor at the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Law, Chair of Sociology, Croatia. She studied sociology, and political science and received a PhD at the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Law, Social Work and Social Policy, Zagreb, Croatia. Her current research interests include child sexual abuse, media coverage of social problems, and sociology of deviance. Contact: stjepka.popovic@pravo.hr
- Miriam Rassenhofer, Jun.-Prof. Dr., is child and adolescent psychotherapist and has a professorship in child protection at the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry/Psychotherapy at the University Hospital Ulm. Her main areas of research include sexual abuse, maltreatment and neglect. Contact: miriam.rassenhofer@uniklinik-ulm.de
- Johannes Wilhelm Rörig is the former German Independent Commissioner for Child Sexual Abuse (UBSKM, 2011-2022). Besides holding a degree in business administration (UAS), Rörig is a fully qualified lawyer and former judge at the labour court in Berlin. He was head of the Central Department at the Federal Ministry for Family Affairs (BMFSFJ) from 2000 to 2009 and sub-director in the Children and Youth Department between 2009 and 2011. <https://beauftragter-missbrauch.de>
- Jimmy Sanderson, PhD., is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Kinesiology and Sport Management at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas. His research is centered on social media and sport. He also researches youth sports with a focus on family dynamics and social media issues. Contact: Jimmy.sanderson@ttu.edu
- Daniela Stelzmann, M. A., works as researcher at the work group Interdisciplinary Security Research (Institute of Computer Science, Freie Universität Berlin). She studied communication science and psychology. Her research interests include CSA prevention, stigma reduction of mental disorders as well as pathological (social) media usage. Contact: daniela.stelzmann@fu-berlin.de
- Jens Wagner, M. A., studied communication science and theatre studies at Freie Universität Berlin. As press officer he was responsible for press and public relations as well as the development and implementation of the communication strategies of the nationwide prevention network “Kein Täter werden” (translation: “Don’t Offend”). Since then he has developed and implemented various communication strategies and content marketing formats as Senior Editor.
- Melinda R. Weathers, PhD., is an Associate Professor in the Department of Communication Studies at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas. Her scholarly interests include intercultural communication, gender and women’s health issues, and new communication technologies. Contact: mweathers@shsu.edu
- Tereza Zavadilová, Mgr., is Ph.D. candidate in the field of Media Studies at the Faculty of Social Sciences at Charles University in Prague. Apart from Journalism and Media Studies she also studied Philosophy at the Faculty of Arts, Charles University. Her interest is the character of changes in media communication of Catholic Church. Contact: tereza.zavadilova@fsv.cuni.cz

