

Contents

Figures and Tables 13

Selected Abbreviations and Acronyms 15

Preface 17

Acknowledgments 21

1. Introduction 23

1.1 Asylum Governance 25

 1.1.1 Underpinnings of Refugee and Asylum Regimes 25

 1.1.2 Governmentality of Immigration 28

 1.1.3 Expanding Borderscapes of Asylum Seeking 29

1.2 Studying the Making of Asylum 32

 1.2.1 Deciding on the Right to Protection 33

 1.2.2 Reification of State Categories? 36

 1.2.3 Critical Asylum Geography 38

1.3 Research Questions and Aims 39

1.4 The Case: The Swiss Asylum Procedure 40

1.5 Roadmap 42

2. An Analytic of Governing Asylum 45

2.1 Material-Semiotics of Governing 46

 2.1.1 Case-Making 47

 2.1.2 Agency 49

2.2 Governmentality 51

 2.2.1 Finalities, Rationalities and Technologies of Government 52

 2.2.2 Law as a Rationality and Technology of Government 55

2.3 The Dispositif	57
2.3.1 Enactment and Multiplicity	58
2.3.2 Associations	61
2.4 Complex Composites of Space and Power	62
2.4.1 Mobile Territories	64
2.4.2 Re-Cording Lives	65
2.5 Summary	67
3. Studying Government by (Dis)Association	69
3.1 Engaging the Dispositif	70
3.2 Methodological Maxims	72
3.3 Assembling Research Achievements	74
3.4 Reassembling the Dispositif	78
3.5 Ethics of Engaging in Casework	82
3.6 Notes on the Possibility and Conditions of Critique	84

PART I – Agentic Formations

4. Knowing Asylum	91
4.1 Framings of the Asylum Dispositif	91
4.1.1 Migration Policy	92
4.1.2 Asylum Law	100
4.1.3 The Asylum Office	108
4.2 Common Sense? Assembling Meaning	113
4.2.1 The Asylum Decision* and the Facts of the Case*	114
4.2.2 Legal Associations to Resolve Asylum Cases	116
4.2.3 'Decision-Seeking': Classification and Heuristics	122
4.2.4 Making Sense through Exemplars	127
5. Equipped for Case-Making	135
5.1 Assembling Agentic Formations	136
5.1.1 Caseworkers: Lone Warriors?	136
5.1.2 Membership Devices: Access and Insignia	139
5.1.3 Super-Vision	143
5.1.4 Re-Collecting Collectives: Meetings and Minutes	147
5.2 Technologies for Assembling Cases	153

5.2.1 Recording Devices 154

5.2.2 Inscription Devices 160

5.2.3 Coordination Devices 170

5.2.4 Writing Devices 177

Summary PART I

PART II – Enactment

6. Case-Making 189

Prelude 189

6.1 Openings 190

6.1.1 Non-Openings and Re-Openings 196

6.1.2 The Dublin Track 199

6.2 Encounters 203

6.2.1 Recording Lives 204

6.2.2 On and Off the Record 211

6.2.3 Formatting Narratives 216

6.2.4 Spatiotemporal Anchoring and Ordering 221

6.3 Assignments 230

6.3.1 Distribution and Allocation 232

6.3.2 Ownership and Passing Things On 237

6.3.3 The ‘Archive’ 241

6.4 Authentications 244

6.4.1 Country of Origin Questions 245

6.4.2 Embassy Enquiries 248

6.4.3 Material Evidence 253

6.4.4 Verisimilitude of Accounts 255

6.5 Closures 259

6.5.1 Split Records 261

6.5.2 Modes of Argumentation 263

6.5.3 Tried and Tested Justifications 274

6.5.4 Sticky Records as Mediators of Sticky Spaces 276

Coda 278

Summary PART II

PART III – (De)Stabilisations

7. States of Conviction	287
7.1 Convictions of Truth-Telling	288
7.1.1 The Alethurgy of Truth-Telling	290
7.1.2 Procedures and Techniques of Truth-Telling	293
7.2 Convictions of Truth-Writing	302
7.2.1 The Legal Scope – A Certain Justice?	303
7.2.2 From the Rule of Law to the Lure of Law	311
7.2.3 ‘The Making of Law’ Revisited	316
7.3 States of Conviction?	323
7.3.1 Overflows of Truth-Writing	323
7.3.2 Overflows of Truth-Telling	324
7.3.3 Overflows and ‘States of Conviction’	327
8. Asylums of Reason	335
8.1 Fragmented Reason	336
8.1.1 Elations and Burdens of Caseworkers	336
8.1.2 Schools of Practice – Reasons of ‘Style’?	343
8.1.3 The ‘Dark Forces’ are the Others	348
8.1.4 Response-Abilities?	351
8.2 The Government of What?	354
8.2.1 Centres of Calculation: Measuring and Forecasting	355
8.2.2 Productivity Pressure: Reshuffling Encounters	363
8.2.3 Politics of Deterrence: Speeding up and Shelving Cases	368
8.3 Asylums of Reason?	375
8.3.1 Atmos-Fears	376
8.3.2 Experimentality	380
8.3.3 Geographical and Historical Exteriorities	385

Summary PART III

9. Conclusion 391

9.1 Governing Asylum 393

9.2 The Need to Resolve 398

9.3 Re-Cording Lives: Sovereignty, Territory, and Exteriority 401

9.4 Closures and Open Endings 404

References 411

Legal Sources 451

