

Contents

Acknowledgments 7

Introduction: An Atlas of Ewa Partum’s Artistic Practice 9

Opening the Archive 10

Horizontal Monograph 11

Framing Ewa Partum’s Artistic Practice 23

Chapter 1

Existing Cartographies 33

The Trajectory of the Redistribution of Ewa Partum’s Practice 33

The Genealogy of Ewa Partum’s Artistic Practice: Text, Image, Body 41

Ewa Partum and Conceptual Orthodoxy 43

Negotiating Conceptual and Feminist Perspectives in Ewa Partum’s Artistic Practice 45

Chapter 2

Ewa Partum’s Critical Engagement with Art Infrastructures 51

Troubling Terminology: Art Infrastructures and the Socialist Art Institution 51

Entering the Professional Art World 56

Creating Art Infrastructures: the Galeria Adres (1972–77) 78

Re-entering the Professional Art World: Engaging with the Curatorial in the Context of Redistribution after 1989 101

Conclusion 116

Chapter 3

Ewa Partum’s Conceptual Art 119

Conceptualism as a Circulating Idea 119

Practicing Conceptualism 135

Conclusion 154

Chapter 4

Feminist Identifications in Ewa Partum's Artistic Practice	157
Feminist Self-Identification (1980)	157
Ewa Partum's Situated Feminism	165
Indicating Victims and Oppressors: Feminist Pedagogy in Performances in Socialist Poland (1974–82)	175
The Active Body: Rhetoric of Disinterestedness	187
The Feminist Emigrant Body: Performances in West Berlin (1982–89)	196
The Contemporary Gendered Economic Subject: The Delegated Performance Pearls (2006)	209
Translating Ewa Partum's Feminist Art Globally	211
Conclusion	224

Chapter 5

The Spaces of the Political: Ewa Partum's Works in the Public Space	227
Public and Private Spheres in Partum's Work	227
The Public Space – East and West	228
Art in the Public Space in Socialist Europe	228
The Production of the Public Space in West Berlin	233
The Legality of Space (1971)	238
Private Performance (1985)	252
Conclusion	258

Instead of Conclusion: Distribution Map	259
The Musealization of the East	261
Operating from a Global Position	265

Illustrations	271
----------------------------	-----

Bibliography	273
---------------------------	-----