

Contents

---

Acknowledgements ..... 9

Introduction: Embodied Violence and Agency in Refugee Regimes

Sabine Bauer-Amin, Leonardo Schiocchet, Maria Six-Hohenbalken ..... 11

PART 1: The Terms of Engagement

European Border Regimes: Necropolitics, Humanitarianism and the Democratic Order

Heidrun Friese ..... 39

Mobility as a Political Act

Alessandro Monsutti ..... 63

Palestinian Diaspora or Exile?
Affective and Experiential Dimensions of (Im)mobility

Leonardo Schiocchet ..... 71

PART 2: Complexity and Selectivity in Refugee Regimes

Intermingling and Overlapping of Refugee Regimes in Their Transnational Connections and Agencies: Yezidi Refugees From Iraq

Maria Six-Hohenbalken ..... 111

On Incorporating Refugee Integration Into Refugee Regime: South Korean Case
Seo Yeon Park .....	143
The Struggle for Agency of Older Refugees of the Syrian Conflict in Vienna
Sabine Bauer-Amin .....	167
Reassessing Civil Society Refugee NGOs and the Role of Informal Networks in Turkey
Denise Tan .....	199
PART 3: Ambiguity and (Un)settlement in Agency
“Young Strong Men Should Be Fighting” – The Vulnerability of Young Male Refugees
Monika Mokre .....	225
Cleavage and Hijab Among Women from the Syrian Conflict in Brazil
Mirian Alves de Souza .....	243
Reading the Routes: Exploring Experiences of Place-Making Through Refugees’ Photographs, Walks, and Narratives in a Swedish Town
Katarina Giritli Nygren, Sara Nyhlén, and Rozalie E. Bøge .....	267
Contributors (in order of appearance) .....	285

To Gabriele Rasuly-Palczek in recognition of her invaluable contribution to the anthropology of forced migration.

