

About the Authors

Daniela Bobeva Dr. is Professor in the Economic Research Institute of the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences and teaches in five universities, mainly in the areas of international economy and finance. She was Head of Department in the Bulgarian Central Bank for more than ten years and has been involved in European Central Bank working groups, the European Union's Economic and Financial Committee (alternates) and other working groups at EU level. e-mail: d.bobeva@vuzf.bg

Sonia Boticiu is currently completing an Executive Master of Laws (LLM) in Banking and Financial Markets Law at the University of Liechtenstein. She completed her bachelor's and master's degrees in law from the University of Craiova, Romania. Her specialisms lie in financial law, banking law, payment transaction law and money laundering prevention. e-mail boticiu@teichmann-law.ch.

Zsolt Darvas was appointed Senior Fellow from September 2013, having joined the organisation originally in 2008 as a Visiting Fellow. He is also Senior Research Fellow at Corvinus University of Budapest. From 2005 to 2008, he was Research Advisor to Argenta Financial Research Group and, prior to that, he worked at the research unit of the Central Bank of Hungary (1994-2005), where he served as Deputy Head. His research interests include macroeconomics, international economics, central banking and time series analysis. e-mail: zsolt.darvas@bruegel.org.

Stefan Guga PhD manages the Romanian operations of Syndex, the Brussels-based consultancy dedicated exclusively to supporting employee representatives. He completed his doctoral studies at Central European University, Budapest, in sociology and social anthropology. His research interests lie in trade unions and Romanian post-socialism, while he has also published widely on minimum wages and the automotive industry in central and eastern Europe. e-mail: s.guga@syndex.ro.

Séverine Picard is the proud founder of Progressive Policies, a consultancy specialised in public policies and labour rights which provides high quality research, policy advice and training support to organisations dedicated to serving the public interest. Her areas of research include labour law and industrial relations, international trade & investment, corporate law, corporate governance, competition policies and corporate taxation. Previously, she was Senior Policy Adviser at the OECD and also Senior Legal Adviser at the ETUI. e-mail: spicard@progressivepolicies.eu.

Denis Schulze is an independent freelance journalist contributing news articles, reviews and commentaries since 2011 to Turkish newspapers both online and in print. His research subjects are mainly focused on international struggle and anti-racist and migratory movements on which themes he also contributes to joint monographs. He is currently writing his graduation thesis in sociocultural studies at Europa-Universität Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder). e-mail deniz.schulze@gmail.com.

Christophe Solioz has, from the early 1990s, been involved in various citizens' initiatives in former Yugoslavia, most notably in the Helsinki Citizens' Assembly. A founder member of the Association Bosnia and Herzegovina 2005 (2003-2005) and, later, of the Center for European Integration Studies (2005-2014), he now lives in Geneva as Professor of Philosophy at the Collège de Genève and is Secretary General of the Multiplex Approach (MAP) Nomad Think Tank. He has written extensively on transition and democratisation as well as on EU integration and regionalism in south-east Europe. e-mail: csolioz@mac.com.

Fabian Teichmann Dr. iur. Dr. rer. Pol. LL.M. is Managing Partner at Teichmann International (Schweiz) AG as well as a director of several other companies in the group. He graduated as a doctor of law from the University of Zurich and acquired a doctorate in economic sciences at the University of Kassel while he holds an LL.M. in international finance and commercial law from King's College, London. He has published on various topics relating to law and economic science and has a particular interest in criminal law and criminology. e-mail teichmann@teichmann-law.ch.