

Acknowledgments

Just like the previous volumes in the series, this volume also emerged from a lecture series at the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt. We would like to thank the authors for their dedicated contribution to this volume and also the other speakers who contributed to the lecture series in various formats. We would like to thank Dr. Michael Winklmann for organizing the events in the winter semester 2020/21, for preparing the manuscript and for his dedicated and valuable cooperation. Our thanks also go to the Presidential Board of the University for generously covering the printing costs. Furthermore, we would like to thank transcript Verlag for including this volume in their publishing program.
