

“Some people think that the artist gives joy, or something, that he gives of his awareness to you. No! The artist paints, but you have to respond with your own mind. ... Of course, you know, our minds have many obstacles, but what gets through, that is your response. And I want to say, beyond doubt, that the only response that you can make and understand is what you yourself can see. In your own mind is your response.”

AGNES MARTIN
1976

AGNES MARTIN

TRANSCULTURAL
TRANSLATIONS

ON THE CONSTRUCTION OF ASIANIST
AESTHETICS IN AMERICAN ART AFTER 1945

MONA SCHIEREN

TRANSCRIPT IMAGE
VOLUME 250