

Contents

Introduction

Medial Bodies. Fictions, Facts and the Reinvention of Corporeality

Denisa Butnaru 7

I. Hybrid Bodies

Gazing Upon the Cyborg as An Unreliable Cartoon: On Some Issues from Superior Iron Man (2014–2015)

Stephan Packard 21

Robots which draw.

How BioArt rethinks Body and Hybridity

Bianca Westermann 41

Artificial human beings and the power of literature: Villiers de l'Isle-Adam, Holmberg, and Piglia

Matthias Hausmann 61

The Aesthetics of Bodies in Translation From The Water-Babies to Real Humans

Ursula Kluwick 85

II. Bodies Unbound: Disability, Ability, Enhancement

From Disability to Enhancement

Paradoxical Representations of Prosthetic Bodies in the Media Discourse

Valentine Gourinat 107

Disability as Malleability
The Prosthetic Metaphor, Merleau-Ponty and the Case of Aimee Mullins
Luna Dolezal	125
The Protean Self
Denisa Butnaru	147
Detecting Bodies
The Dystopian Detective Film and Narratives of Reproduction
Gero Guttzeit	165
III. Corporeal Interfaces
The Cinematic Body
A reflection on the status of the sentient body in film theory
Stefan Kristensen	189
Embodying the Reader
Perspectives on Fiction, Cognition, and the Body
Marco Caracciolo	205
Medial Bodies
Forays into Artistic and Philosophical-Anthropological Research
Martin Dornberg and Daniel Fetzner	221
The Aberrant Medial Body
Visual Representations of Self-Harming Behavior on Social Network Sites
Julius Erdmann	245
List of Authors	263