

Contents

Foreword
Nancy M. P. Bocken	9
Introduction
Maike Gossen and Laura Niessen	11
Part A –
Viewpoints on Sufficiency in Business
Towards a Characterization of Sufficiency-Oriented Businesses
Enhancing their Understanding and Identifying Key Dimensions
Julia Bruckner	17
A Taxonomy of Corporate Sufficiency Strategies
Exploring Driving Factors for Sufficiency in Business
Christel Maurer	43
The Future of Organizations
Understanding Business Model Implications of Shifting from Profit to Purpose
Maren Ingrid Kropfeld and André Reichel	65
Depths of Sufficiency in Business
Diving Through the Planes of Social Being
Iana Nesterova and Hubert Buch-Hansen	83
Sufficiency and the Logic of Care
Transforming the Relationships, Practices and Temporalities of Businesses
Laura Beyeler	95

Part B –
Experiences of Sufficiency in Business

Sufficiency as a Core Building Block of Community-Supported Business Models Introducing an Innovative Business Model Type for Sufficiency Jana-Michaela Timm and Michaela Hausdorf	117
Digging for Roots of Sufficiency in the Food Industry Exploring How Ecological Embeddedness Supports Sufficiency in Business Jessica Jungell-Michelsson and Iana Nesterova	135
Cultures of Sufficiency in Food Businesses Proposing a Processual Systems Approach to Understand Cultures of Sufficiency Joshua Hurtado Hurtado, Heini Salonen, Tina Nyfors, Pasi Heikkurinen and Kristoffer Wilén	155
Social Media Communication for Sufficiency in Fashion Investigating the Case of Houdini Sportswear on Instagram Beatriz Garcia-Ortega, Javier Galan-Cubillo, F. Javier Llorens-Montes and Blanca de-Miguel-Molina	177
Towards Sustainable Fashion Exploring Sufficiency-Oriented Business Models in French Fashion SMEs Maëlle Soulis and Oksana Mont	197
The Paradox of Minimalism in the Field of Lifestyle Products Uncovering How the Minimalism Business Impedes Sufficiency Viola Muster and Marlene Münch	225
Paving the Way towards Sufficiency in Mobility Promoting Cycling Through a Bicycle Subscription Service Laura Niessen, Nancy M. P. Bocken and Marc Dijk	239
From Efficiency to Sufficiency in the ICT Sector Reflecting on Fifteen Years of Trial and Error Isabelle Dabadie	257
Self-Restraint and Sufficiency of a Steel Processor Countering the Corporate Rebound Effect Jana Gebauer, Laura Niessen and Maike Gossen	273

Part C –
Transformative Changes for Sufficiency
on Political and Societal Levels

(In)Compatibility of the Market with Sufficiency
Applying a Systemic Lens on Markets
Isaac Arturo Ortega Alvarado 297

Limits of Sufficiency Strategies in Business Practices
Overcoming Business-Related Boundaries for a Transition Towards Sufficiency
Maike Gassen, Josephine Tröger and Vivian Frick 309

Policy-Making as a Crucial Element for Sufficiency on the Business Level
Discussing the Role of Policies to Push Sufficiency beyond Pioneers
Jonas Lage, Benjamin Best, Tobias Froese and Carina Zell-Ziegler 325

Appendix

Authors 343

