

Contents

Foreword

Nancy M. P. Bocken 9

Introduction

Maike Gossen and Laura Niessen 11

Part A – Viewpoints on Sufficiency in Business

Towards a Characterization of Sufficiency-Oriented Businesses

Enhancing their Understanding and Identifying Key Dimensions

Julia Bruckner 17

A Taxonomy of Corporate Sufficiency Strategies

Exploring Driving Factors for Sufficiency in Business

Christel Maurer 43

The Future of Organizations

Understanding Business Model Implications of Shifting from Profit to Purpose

Maren Ingrid Kropfeld and André Reichel 65

Depths of Sufficiency in Business

Diving Through the Planes of Social Being

Iana Nesterova and Hubert Buch-Hansen 83

Sufficiency and the Logic of Care

Transforming the Relationships, Practices and Temporalities of Businesses

Laura Beyeler 95

Part B – Experiences of Sufficiency in Business

Sufficiency as a Core Building Block of Community-Supported Business Models

Introducing an Innovative Business Model Type for Sufficiency
Jana-Michaela Timm and Michaela Hausdorf 117

Digging for Roots of Sufficiency in the Food Industry

Exploring How Ecological Embeddedness Supports Sufficiency in Business
Jessica Jungell-Michelsson and Iana Nesterova 135

Cultures of Sufficiency in Food Businesses

Proposing a Processual Systems Approach to Understand Cultures of Sufficiency
Joshua Hurtado Hurtado, Heini Salonen, Tina Nyfors, Pasi Heikkurinen and Kristoffer Wilén 155

Social Media Communication for Sufficiency in Fashion

Investigating the Case of Houdini Sportswear on Instagram
Beatriz Garcia-Ortega, Javier Galan-Cubillo, F. Javier Llorens-Montes and Blanca de-Miguel-Molina 177

Towards Sustainable Fashion

Exploring Sufficiency-Oriented Business Models in French Fashion SMEs
Maëlle Soulis and Oksana Mont 197

The Paradox of Minimalism in the Field of Lifestyle Products

Uncovering How the Minimalism Business Impedes Sufficiency
Viola Muster and Marlene Münch 225

Paving the Way towards Sufficiency in Mobility

Promoting Cycling Through a Bicycle Subscription Service
Laura Niessen, Nancy M. P. Bocken and Marc Dijk 239

From Efficiency to Sufficiency in the ICT Sector

Reflecting on Fifteen Years of Trial and Error
Isabelle Dabadie 257

Self-Restraint and Sufficiency of a Steel Processor

Countering the Corporate Rebound Effect
Jana Gebauer, Laura Niessen and Maike Gossen 273

Part C – Transformative Changes for Sufficiency on Political and Societal Levels

(In)Compatibility of the Market with Sufficiency

Applying a Systemic Lens on Markets

Isaac Arturo Ortega Alvarado 297

Limits of Sufficiency Strategies in Business Practices

Overcoming Business-Related Boundaries for a Transition Towards Sufficiency

Maike Gassen, Josephine Tröger and Vivian Frick 309

Policy-Making as a Crucial Element for Sufficiency on the Business Level

Discussing the Role of Policies to Push Sufficiency beyond Pioneers

Jonas Lage, Benjamin Best, Tobias Froese and Carina Zell-Ziegler 325

Appendix

Authors 343

