

Contents

Acknowledgements	9
-------------------------------	---

Inter-Cultural-Policy: Performing Arts as a Model of Diversity Development

Preface by Wolfgang Schneider	11
--	----

1. Why Cultural Diversity in Performing Arts?	15
1.1 The Relevance of the Research Subject and Objectives	17
1.2 Discourse Analysis and Dispositive Strategy	21
1.2.1 The Framework of Discourse Analysis	22
1.2.2 Power and Knowledge in the Production of Discourses	23
1.2.3 The Concept of Dispositive	24
1.2.4 Investigating a Dispositive as a Research Perspective	25
1.2.5 Data Sampling and Data Selection	28
1.2.6 Data Evaluation	30
1.3 Case Study Analysis	31
1.3.1 Case Study Research Design	32
1.3.2 Cases and the Casing	33
1.3.3 Data Collection for the Casing	34
1.3.4 Content Review	35
1.4 The Structure of the Study	36
2. Cultural Policy, Systematic Exclusion, Structural Racism	41
2.1 The Role of Policymaking in Maintaining Systematic Exclusion	41
2.2 Historical Institutionalism: Inertia in Institutional Structures	43
2.3 Bourdieu's Field Theory for Framing the Rules of the Game	44
2.4 German Theatre and Diversity	47
2.4.1 Municipal and State Theaters	50
2.4.1.1 The Artistic Director's Vision of Diversity	55
2.4.2 Freie Szene (Independent Theatre Scene)	57
2.4.3 Post-Migrant Theatre	58

2.5	Structural and Institutional Racism	60
2.5.1	Eurocentrism and Stigmatising Cultural Differences as a Form of Racism	62
2.5.2	Spatiality, Othering, and Reproduction of Racism	70
3.	Integration, Intercultural Management, Migration Mainstreaming	77
3.1	(Cultural) Integration and the Failure of Multiculturalism	79
3.2	The Rise of the Intercultural Approach in Cultural Policy	88
3.3	The Modes of Intercultural Orientation at the Länder and Municipal Level	91
3.3.1	Cultural Diversity as an Integrative Cultural Policy Concept	93
3.3.2	The Professionalisation of Intercultural Project Management	95
3.3.3	Intercultural Integration and Gender Mainstreaming	97
3.3.4	Intercultural Exchange as a Way for the Development of Intercultural Practice	99
3.3.5	Migration Mainstreaming and Administrative Reform	101
4.	Cultural Diversity, Inclusion Policy, Intercultural Dialogue	105
4.1	Politics and Cultural Policy	107
4.2	Value-Based Cultural Policy and the Construction of Hierarchised Diversity	109
4.3	New Diversity as a Challenge: The Problematisation of Immigration	111
4.3.1	Kulturation and Kulturstaat : A Binary Division Between “Us” and “The Other” ..	112
4.3.2	The Making of Strangers Through Inclusion Policies	117
4.4	Intercultural Dialogue for a Successful Cultural Integration	121
5.	Federal Programmes, Intercultural and Transcultural Projects	127
5.1	The German Federal Cultural Foundation and The Heimspiel Fund (2006–2012)	128
5.1.1	Immigrants as New Target Audiences for Public Theatres	129
5.1.2	Bunnyhill : First Encounter with Immigration	131
5.1.3	New Narratives and Artistic Formats Around Otherness	132
5.1.4	Who Owns the Stage?	134
5.1.5	The Future Image of Municipal Theatre	136
5.2	The Performing Arts Fund and the Homebase Programme (2016)	139
5.2.1	Intercultural Dialogue and Exchange in the Independent Theatre Scene	140
5.2.2	Artistic Approaches to Displacement, Identity, and Homeland	142
5.2.3	Networking with Artists Seeking Refuge	145
5.2.4	Theatre for the Coming Society	146
5.3	The Socio-Culture Fund (2009–2019)	149
5.3.1	Interculture as a Primary Thematic Focus	152
5.3.2	Conceptualisation of Interculturality and Transculturality	154
5.3.3	Assessment Framework for Intercultural and Transcultural Projects	158
5.3.4	The Socio-Culture Innovation Award	160

6.	Solidarity, Collective Thinking, Self-Empowerment	163
6.1	Criteria for Determining the Casing	164
6.2	Boat people projekt	167
6.2.1	Engaging with Immigration: Why and for Whom?	169
6.2.2	Working with Young Amateur Refugees	171
6.2.3	Focusing on Solidarity and Self-Empowerment	173
6.2.4	The Impact of Intercultural Collaboration on Personal Development	176
6.2.5	On Aesthetics and Narrative Content	177
6.3	Hajusom	180
6.3.1	Cultural Diversity as Political and Social Commitment	181
6.3.2	Collective Thinking at the Foundation of an Artistic Method	183
6.3.3	Transnational Approach for Performative Practices	185
6.3.4	Each One Teach One: Principle of Knowledge Transfer	188
6.3.5	The Emancipator vs. the Emancipated	189
6.4	Ruhrorter	192
6.4.1	Tackling Exclusion and Stigmatisation	194
6.4.2	Site-Specific Productions for Fostering Collective Memory	196
6.4.3	Minimalistic Aesthetics for the Renegotiation of the Past and the Future	197
6.4.4	Theatrical Elaboration from Conceptualisation to Implementation	200
6.4.5	The Role of Ethnographic Work in Artistic Reflection	201
6.5	PostHeimat : Confronting Structural Inequalities in Performing Arts	204
6.6	Investing in Learning Spaces for Enhancing Diversification Processes	213
7.	Intercultural Reorganisation in Performing Arts	215
7.1	Diversity in Motion: Thinking and Acting Interculturally	220
7.1.1	Indicators of Interculturality in Performing Arts	222
7.2	Intercultural Cultural Policy Framework for the Theatre Landscape	227
7.3	Epilogue: Where to Next?	243
	Abbreviations	245
	List of Tables	247
	Reference List	249

