

Nicolas Zehner
Envisaging Dataist Modernity

Science Studies

Nicolas Zehner (Dr.) is a postdoctoral researcher at the Collaborative Research Center 1265 “Re-Figuration of Spaces” at Technische Universität Berlin, as well as associated researcher at Weizenbaum Institute. He holds a PhD in Sociology from the University of Edinburgh. In the academic year 2021/2022, Zehner was a visiting research fellow at Harvard University’s Program on Science, Technology and Society. His research investigates the co-constitutive relationship between scientific knowledge production and urban development with a particular focus on higher education institutions.
