

Contents

On the Globality of Autosociobiography

An Introduction

Johanna Bundschuh-van Duikeren, Marie Jacquier, and Peter Löffelbein7

Thing, or Not a Thing?

Reading for the Autosocial in Life Narrative

Sidonie Smith and Julia Watson 35

Towards a Theory of Minor Subjectivation

Global Perspectives in the Work of Didier Eribon

Christina Ernst 61

Towards an Intersectional Autosociobiography

Diversifying Perspectives on the Works of Annie Ernaux and Mely Kiyak

Thekla Noschka77

Reading across Borders

Autosociobiography and Dalit Autobiography at the Intersections of Class, Caste, and Gender

Mrunmayee Sathye 103

Reversing Class Defection

Two Ionian Tales of Gender, Nation, and Woe

Michail Leivadiotis125

Autosociobiography and the Temporalities of Class
The Works of Kerry Hudson and Darren McGarvey
Peter Löffelbein	143
Writing the (Communal) Self in Spanish Contemporary Fiction
Family, Class, and Generation in Manuel Vilas and Carlos Pardo
Jobst Welge	161
A Japanese Pioneer of Autosociobiography?
Nakano Kōji's Memoirs of Adolescence
Christopher Schelletter	183
On the Margin of Literature
Polish Life Writing Competitions in the Context of Autosociobiography
Paweł Rodak	205
Autosociobiographies as a Way of Writing Social Life
Lagasnerie's 3 between Literature and Sociology
Marc Ortmann	227
List of contributors	245