

Contents

Introduction

The Vatican to Vegas 11

Part I. Scripted Spaces and the Illusion of Power, 1550-1780

1. Baroque Immersion, Baroque Artifice 37

2. Perspective Awry 59

3. Masques 73

4. Happy Imprisonment: Labyrinths 99

5. Burning Down Vesuvius: Late Baroque Gizmos and Fiery Illusions, 1750-1780 115

Part II. Building the Unexpected: Industrial Fables as Special Effects, 1780-1964

6. After 1780: The Baroque Imaginary into Science Fiction 149

7. Aloft: Jules Verne; Felix Nadar; Edgar Allan Poe 167

8. Oz 177

9. Panoramas: A Crow's Nest Over London; Walking Through Gettysburg 183

10. The Virgin and the Dynamo: World's Fairs, 1851-1964 193

Part III. Alien Thrills: Epic Shocks on Screen, 1895 to the Present

11. Movie F/X: Making Heads Roll 217

12. 2001 to 2001: Immersion into Deep Space. Baroque Reincarnation 231

13. Animation as Baroque: Fleischer Morphs Harlem; Tangos to Crocodiles 249

14. Panoramic Chases into Nowhere: From Tex Avery to Independence Day 281

15. The Sim Future of the Cinematic City 293

Part IV. The Electronic Baroque: 1955-2050

16. Noir Disney 321

17. Scripted Spaces: Navigating the Consumer-Built City 333

18. Outside the Labyrinth: Architainment in Las Vegas 341

19. The Disappearing Nineties: Jerde Cities 361

Conclusion

Easy Credit: Driving Two Hundred Years a Day in Los Angeles 373

Afterword

Bush as Baroque Special Effects: (December 23, 2000)	389
-------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Appendix

Search Engine for the History of Special Effects	405
---------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Afterword for New Edition (September 2023)	419
---------------------------------------------------------	-----

Notes	437
--------------------	-----

