

APPENDIX

Politico-legal and Ethical Characteristics of the World Religions

	Socio-political Organization	Carrier Stratum	Law	Method of Salvation	Personality
Confucianism	Patrimonial Domination	Bureaucrats	Substantively rational, Custom	Ritualistic, magical	World-preserving
Hinduism/ Buddhism	Caste System	Priests & Monks	Custom	Contemplative	Flight from the world
Islam	Patrimonial Domination (Sultanism)	Warriors	Not systematized patrimonial, qadi justice	Faith, ritualistic	World-conquering & adapting
Ancient Judaism	Pariah Situation	City dwelling merchants	Casuistic	Contemplative, legalistic	World-accepting
Oriental Christianity	Patrimonial Domination	Monks	Patrimonial, Custom	Contemplative	Indifference to the world
Occidental Christianity	Patrimonial & feudal	City dwelling craftsmen	Concurrent jurisdictions	Institutional grace	Overcoming the world
Ascetic Protestantism	Legal Domination	Citizen	Formal-rational	Ascetic (innerworldly)	Domination of the world