Cultural and Media Studies

I am grateful to

Winfried Fluck, for guidance through freedom in many years of equally supportive and challenging mentorship

Laura Bieger, for an always caring balance of friendly criticism and critical friendship

My father, for encouraging fearlessness and inquisitiveness, and for cherishing the beauty of rational thought

My mother, for being my shining example of courage, dedication, and tenacity

Maria Aleksandra Slowinska studied at Johns Hopkins University, Yale University and Freie Universität Berlin, where she received her doctorate. She is now a Strategy and Innovation Consultant working at the confluence of academic research and industrial development.
